Moderator & Panelists

Ben McAdams, Salt County Mayor

Ben McAdams was sworn into office as Salt Lake County Mayor on Jan. 7, 2013. Mayor McAdams pledged to work collaboratively, across party lines, to find efficiencies in county government and to be open and accountable to citizens.

Bill Applegarth, Riverton City Mayor

Throughout his life, Bill Applegarth has dedicated himself to serving people and the community around him. After studying at BYU he received his Doctorate in Educational Administration. He then pursued a 40 year career for the LDS Church Education system, including 34 years as an administrator.

Caitlin Gochmour, Ogden City Council

Caitlin K. Gochmour is an Ogden native and graduated from Ogden High School. She attended the University of Utah and earned a degree in Communications/Public Relations. Caitlin was employed as a Communications Specialist for Questar Corporation. Later she served as the Panguitch Main Street Manager working with business owners to promote economic development. Caitlin has been elected to the Ogden City Council to represent Municipal Ward 4.

Cherie Wood, South Salt Lake Mayor

Cherie Wood is a lifelong resident of the City of South Salt Lake and began her career with the City 22 years ago at the front counter processing utility payments. Always accepting new challenges, she strengthened her skills through various positions with the City and in 2006 was appointed as Assistant Mayor to Mayor Robert Gray.

Chris Pengra, Eagle Mountain Mayor

Mr. Pengra grew up in Southern California and moved to Utah shortly after graduating high school. The events of 9/11 affected him deeply, and at that time, he was compelled to place his career on hold in order to serve his country in the United States Air Force. While serving in the Air Force, he worked hard to complete his degree in Business Administration from the University of Maryland, University College at Adelphi.

John Curtis, Provo City Mayor

Provo City Mayor John Curtis was born in Salt Lake City and graduated from Skyline High School. He developed a deep and enduring affection for Provo over the years through many family visits. He attended the University of Utah and later graduated from BYU in business management in 1985. He worked at Action Target as the Chief Operating Officer before becoming Provo's Mayor in 2010.

Louenda Downs, Davis County Commissioner

Commissioner Louenda Downs was born in Brigham City, Utah. She is a graduate of Davis High School. She earned her B.S. in Education from Weber State University with an emphasis in Art and Music. Louenda has been a professional musician for over 30 years. She taught school for seven years in Davis School District and was then elected to serve eight years on the Davis Board of Education. She then took the position of Partnership Coordinator and Assistant Director of the Davis Education Foundation.
