

Street Furniture Series Introduction

Street furniture is an essential feature that enhances the street's physical character and provides convenient and enjoyable use for pedestrians. This series includes photos of several different types of street furniture. While viewing these photos you may choose to consider how the following keywords apply to each photo. Then, consider how these keywords may apply to similar, present and future plans for street furniture within your community.

Street Furniture Definition:

Those features associated with a street that are intended to enhance that street's physical character and use by pedestrians, such as benches, trash receptacles, kiosks, lights, newspaper racks, etc. (Larkspur, California)

Keywords:

aesthetic quality, art, benches, bike racks, character, comfortable, historic plaques, kiosks, lighting, parking meters, planter boxes, safety, street vendors, tables, trash cans, used as street buffer or traffic calming tools, walkable, water features