1. Roll Call and Consent Agenda [00:00:05]

Mayor Joy Petro, Chair, called the meeting to order at 9:19 am and welcomed committee members and guests. Mayor Petro initiated a roll call and Jordon Chandler, WFRC, announced the participants who joined virtually.

a. ACTION: Approval of Minutes [00:02:13]

Mayor Petro entertained a motion to approve the minutes of the Active Transportation Committee meeting held on August 13, 2024. A motion was made by Mayor Carla Merrill, Alpine, seconded by Jared Bowling, UDOT, that the minutes be approved without changes. The affirmative motion was carried unanimously.

2. Chair's Report [00:02:59]

- a. Connected Communities Summit Review: Mayor Petro asked the group to share their experiences from the recent Connected Communities Summit held in Provo. Councilmember Ellen Birrell, Cottonwood Heights and Kendall Wilkinson, MAG shared some of the highlights they experienced at the recent Summit.

[00:08:54] Zack Scriven, resident of Salt Lake City, made a public comment in support of the Rio Grande Plan

3. Public Comment [00:10:04]

Mayor Petro explained that it was now time for public comments. Elliott Mott, Volunteer Organizer extended an invitation to the Legacy Trail Ride on Saturday, October 12th at 10 AM.

4. Utah Trail Network Vision Process [00:12:31]

Stephanie Tomlin, UDOT Trails Division Director, outlined the public outreach process that will continue through the end of 2024. She highlighted the steps UDOT has already taken and the next steps for launching the Utah Trail Network to connect Utah's trails.

5. Updating the Wasatch Choice Centers: Hotspots for AT [00:37:36]

Megan Padjen, Community and Economic Development Director at WFRC, provided an overview of the types of Wasatch Choice Centers and reviewed the criteria, benefits, and examples of each type in relation to the communities they serve.

6. Active Transportation in Traffic Impact Studies [00:54:55]

Hugh Van Wagenen, Active Transportation Planner at WFRC, led a discussion on Traffic Impact Studies, which traditionally examine the effects of proposed developments on car traffic. He prompted the conversation by asking how impacts on biking and walking could also be considered during these studies, as well as what communities have done in the past to accommodate these other modes of transportation.

7. Review: 2025 ATC Meeting Schedule [01:15:47]

Hugh Van Wagenen reviewed the options for the 2025 Active Transportation Committee meetings and asked attendees to complete a brief survey to help WFRC choose a schedule that would accommodate the most members. He explained that he would review the survey results and send out meeting dates as soon as they are available.

8. Other Business and Adjournment [01:17:54]

Jory Johner provided a brief reminder about the upcoming fall workshops scheduled to take place between mid-October and mid-November. Mayor Petro adjourned the meeting at 10:38 AM.
